REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 AUGUST 2018

The objects of the Brownlee Old Town Trust are the advancement of education and other purposes beneficial to the Old Town of Edinburgh. To that end the Trust makes grants to projects of a social, educational or artistic nature involving or of benefit to young people.

Main Activities and Achievements

During the year the Trust paid out grants as follows:

- £14 for the book The Lost Words by Robert MacFarlane and Jackie Morris for the Cowgate Under-5s Centre. The book resulted from the public outcry when nature words were dropped from a junior dictionary and consists of acrostics by Robert Macfarlane with illustrations by Jackie Morris; the words and images beautifully designed for reading aloud to children.

Trust has awarded but has yet to pay grants as follows:

- £250 to Justine Gordon-Smith towards the costs of her PhD project to create a documentary film about the lives of those living on the Royal Mile (April 2013).
- £300 to the Friends of Canongate Kirkyard for the reprinting of leaflets on the kirkyard (August 2015).
- £100 for the 2017 Mary Whitfield Good Citizenship Prizes and £100 for the 2018 prizes (annual expenditure).

Governance

The Brownlee Old Town Trust is a charitable trust regulated by a trust deed dated 1 December 1994 (Scottish Charity Number SC023216, Inland Revenue Reference CR47224). The Trust commenced its activities on 1 April 1995 when it received the proceeds of a bequest made to the Edinburgh Old Town Association by the late Sybil Brownlee. The Trust has since received other funds which it has allocated to its capital endowment.

The day-to-day administration of the Trust is conducted by voluntary Trustees, at least 50% of whom must be members of the Executive Committee of the Edinburgh Old Town Association. Trustees may be appointed by resolution of the existing Trustees.

Trustees for the year under review were Anja Amsel, Rosemary Mann, Naomi Richardson and Eric Drake. All Trustees were also members of the Executive Committee of the Edinburgh Old Town Association.

Financial Review

The results for the year are shown in the statements on page 3. These show a surplus of £286. Funds under the Trustees' control at 31 August 2018 were £33,257, £32,000 of which is the permanent endowment, £750 has been awarded as grants, leaving £508 as 'free' reserves.

Financial Review (continued)

The running costs of the Trust (telephone, postage, stationery, etc.) are met by the Edinburgh Old Town Association which also gives the Trust a page on its website. The Trustees are grateful for this support which enables all income to be used for grants.

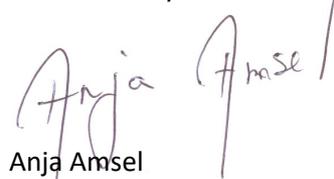

The Trustees are also most grateful to Geoghegans for undertaking the external examination of the accounts on a pro bono basis.

Plans for Future Years

The low level of income from interest on capital due to the current low level of interest rates is expected to continue to affect the number and value of grants that can be awarded. The Trust is confident, however, that it will be able to call on the Edinburgh Old Town Association for support for grants for deserving causes.

The Brownlee Trustees welcome any suggestions for projects that might benefit from a (small) injection of funds. The Trustees would also welcome any grants, donations or legacies for disbursing as grants or to augment the capital of the Trust.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

I report on the financial statements of the Trust for the year ended 31 August 2018 which are set out on pages 3 and 4.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the financial statements as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Trust and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
